CONSTELLATIONS

14th November 2010

Futuresound are pleased to announce Constellations, a brand new music and arts festival taking place against the backdrop of one of the UK's most creative cities. Constellations will take place at Leeds University on Sunday 14th November across 3 stages and it is with great pleasure we can announce the first wave of bands;

BROKEN SOCIAL SCENE (Arts & Crafts)

FOUR TET (Domino)

LOS CAMPESINOS! (Witchita)

LES SAVY FAV (French Kiss/Witchita) and

LOCAL NATIVES (Infectious)

+ Many more exciting acts to be announced over the coming months.

Constellations is a bold endeavour. Conceived as an inclusive music and arts event with each stage featuring a unique theme and concept.

Futuresound are also pleased to welcome The Brudenell Social Club, Dance To The Radio, Room 237 and Wichita Records (currently celebrating their 10th anniversary no less) as collaborators for the inaugural event.
